Schloss Elmau, Bavaria

Yoga in Germany's luxury retreat – Schloss Elmau

Schloss Elmau, in the foothills of the Bavarian Alps, is where Angela Merkel welcomed the G7 in 2015. There's no record of how many of its seven swimming pools, six spas and eight restaurants the world leaders made use of, so you may as well try all of them during your trip. In early October Elmau is hosting a week-long special yoga summit, with teachers from several disciplines. Meanwhile, there's white-water rafting on the Loisach River and wild swimming in the Geroldsee lake, plus evening concerts (if you can stay awake after all that activity).
